

Panelist: Symphony Chakma

Symphony is a peer support worker from headspace, Functional Recovery Team, Early Psychosis Service. In their practice, they use art as a mechanism and teach their young people how to use it as a tool to cope with their distress.

They will be on the panel to talk about their lived experience of using art as a therapeutic tool.

