

What's on in Adelaide March 2019

Barossa Valley

Just a 50 minute drive north east of Adelaide, the Barossa is an internationally-acclaimed wine region encompassing the towns of Tanunda, Angaston and Nuriootpa. Wander into over 80 cellar doors, tasting some of the most awarded wines in the world and digging into sumptuous local produce. Meet winemakers, chat with passionate staff and mingle with proud locals. It's a region founded on passion, pride and South Australian spirit.

Adelaide Hills

Wind your way down leafy lanes, stopping at villages dappled in light. The towns of Aldgate, Stirling, Oakbank, Birdwood, Crafers, Mount Barker and Hahndorf are all within an hour's drive away from Adelaide and are brimming with wildlife encounters and cultural discoveries. You'll find restaurants serving South Australia's best produce, while wineries beckon from leafy groves, eager for you to sample one of their cool climate drops. The Adelaide Hills are home to some of South Australia's best food, wine and scenery; it's all so easy to access.

Clare Valley

You'll find more than 50 cellar doors between the towns of Auburn and Clare, along a stunning 40km corridor. Five-star wineries are scattered throughout the Clare Valley; its signature wine, Riesling, is among the world's best. When looking for awarded cellar doors, visit the towns of Clare, Sevenhill, Watervale, Mintaro, Auburn and Polish Hill River. Pick up a gourmet picnic basket from one of many wineries or stop at a farm gate store and buy direct from the producer. Top it all off with lunch at Skillogalee, Terroir Auburn or Seed Winehouse, enjoying beautiful views over the valley.

Kangaroo Island

There's an unmistakable sanctity about Kangaroo Island. Fly with Qantas direct from Adelaide or take your car on the Sealink Ferry. As you step off onto the island, it's impossible not to relax. Kangaroo Island is known as nature's playground. Hit the road and you'll find out why.

Wildlife abounds as friendly pubs, accommodation and restaurants give-way to towering cliffs, wild plains and impeccably clear waters. Follow the road less travelled and discover unique wildlife, mouth-watering food and wine, breathtaking scenery and a laid-back lifestyle.

Adelaide Fringe

Until 17 March 2019

The Adelaide Fringe is Australia's largest Arts Festival and the second biggest Fringe Festival in the world!

We completely take over Adelaide and its' surrounds for 31 magical days and nights each year, and if you ask anyone who's ever been lucky enough to experience the Fringe, they'll tell you that it's the best time of year to be in Adelaide.

Our atmosphere is indescribable, but here are some words that almost do the job; mythical, magical, fantabulous, fantasmagorical, supercalifragilisticexpialidocious. You get the idea – we're one in a million.

Venues big and small, pop-up and permanent, house thousands of artists from all over Adelaide, Australia and the world. Around most of Adelaide's corners, whether in an alleyway, a tent, a pub; a laundromat, or an abandoned hospital, you'll be bound to find Fringe goodness in some shape or form.

With free events, ground breaking work, new talent, innovative thinking and original voices, we're here to unleash the fun.

Adelaide Festival 2019

Until 17 March

The Adelaide Festival is an iconic Australian arts festival that runs for two weeks in March. It is internationally recognised as Australia's pre-eminent arts festival. Along with festivals in Edinburgh and Avignon, the Adelaide Festival is often cited as one of the top three festivals in the world, providing audiences with a survey of the most original and acclaimed artists and performing arts organisations working in the world today. The program traverses a cross-section of music, theatre, dance, literature and visual art from artists of diverse backgrounds and cultures.

"Every major capital city in Australia has its own arts festival, but ask those who work in the industry and most will tell you the same thing: Adelaide Festival is the big one.

It has a history of attracting the most significant artists in the world. It's been running since 1960, but its scope is so big it only became an annual event in 2012. Basically, it's where to go if you want to binge on cutting-edge, high-profile, large-scale international art."
