

What's on in Tasmania

20 February - 3 March 2019

Salamanca Market

Salamanca Market is one of Australia's most vibrant and loved outdoor markets. It's a new adventure every Saturday.

The Salamanca Market is located at historic Salamanca Place, next to the Hobart waterfront and with over 300 stallholders it's an experience that's hard to beat.

The Salamanca Market operates every Saturday 8:30 am to 3:00 pm, except for Christmas Day or Anzac Day when the market is held on Sunday. There is no entry fee, making it free to enjoy.

MONA – Museum of Old and New Art, Hobart

Toby Ziegler: Your Shadow Rising

Exhibition – Mona Until 25 March 2019

Toby Ziegler uses painting, sculpture and video work to interrogate the role of the artist in an era of image-saturation, and to meditate on themes of origins, trauma, and transformation through fire.

ZERO

'Zero is the beginning.'

Exhibition – Mona Until 22 April 2019

Major artworks from the ZERO movement, shown together in Australia for the first time. These artists dreamed of an exhibition on the moon. Perhaps Tassie is as close (or far) as they are going to get.

Jokers Comedy Club

Jokers Comedy Club is Hobart's only weekly comedy club.

Every Wednesday night Jokers presents a brilliant line-up of stand-up comedians to keep you laughing through the week.

Regularly featuring famous-name headline comedians and hilarious support acts from Tasmania, interstate and overseas - you are guaranteed a great night out!

The venue is located at the Polish Corner. The room is comfortable, the drinks are cheap and the laughs will be huge. Why not try one of the extensive range of excellent Polish beers? Be welcomed by our friendly staff then sit back, relax and prepare to be entertained.
