

What's on in Perth

6 – 20 February 2019

South Beach Sunset Market

Come along to this fabulous summertime fun event at South Beach, South Fremantle, each Saturday night from 5 pm until 9 pm right through summer, commencing the first week of December.

feast on hawker food delights from the world over listen to live music

enjoy kid's entertainment, animal farm and face painting grab a drink from our 'pop-up bar'

watch the sun set over the beautiful Indian ocean

Sunset Wines and Brews

9 February

Sunset Wine & Brews is the place to be this summer!

Enjoy an iconic WA sunset while tasting the best of WA's wine, craft beers, ciders, and spirits at the new Scarborough Beach Reserve. Add in some gourmet food, live music, good friends and the perfect coast backdrop and you have one of summer's best boutique festivals – Sunset Wine & Brews!

Estonian Philharmonic Chamber – Arvo Pärt & JS Bach

13 February

Perth Concert Hall

<https://perthconcerthall.com.au/events/event/arvo-paert-and-js-bach>

The famed Estonian Philharmonic Chamber Choir joins the Australian Chamber Orchestra in a celebration of Bach and Arvo Pärt. Ethereal and otherworldly, this is music by two towering composers searching for the very core of human meaning.

Fun ahoy on the Swan River aboard stately tall ship replica

Until 24 March 2019

Moonlight Cinema

Until 31 March 2019

Kings Park, Perth

<https://www.facebook.com/moonlightcinema>

Inglewood on Beaufort Monday Night Markets

Until 29 April 2019

The Inglewood on Beaufort Markets features food trucks and stalls that run both sides of Beaufort Street from 6th to 10th Avenue, every Monday from 6pm to 9pm.

Field of Light Albany – Art Installation

Until 25 April 2019

Following on from the incredibly successful – and incredibly beautiful – Field of Light, Uluru, WA is getting its own Field of Light in Albany.

The Field of Light: Avenue of Honour, a new installation honouring peace and reconciliation with 16,000 glowing spheres planted in the ground at Albany's Mt Clarence, has drawn around 5000 people through its gates on its opening weekend.

